Christian soldiers on March for God; God has said his people would work, in the day of his power. Psalms 110:3. Such manifestations are seen in the weekly reports which come from lands afar, in spite of wars, and rumors of wars. This recent report gives the sum of new and returning missionaries in 1960: 490, the largest figure in the history of our denomination. 3 national workers in training in the U. S. A. returned to their homeland. When the background of political unrest, racial and overt fighting is considered, this is a great achievement. Our workers have had to face trials, and uncertainties in some areas, have had to assume greater responsibilities, but the pattern of organization in our churches, has not only made this adjustment possible, but also normal to a great extent.

Mrs. Robt. Fore, Press Secretary for the church says: "Nothing can thwart God's plan for reaching earth's millions. His marching orders are still the same today: "Go ye into all the world." Mark 16:15.

Hixburg

Hixburg, April 19-It was Ladies' Night with the Ruritans at Pamplin Elementary School on Friday evening.

Bright lights shone on the long tables in the cafeteria where ladies of the Pamplin H. D. Club had decorated and set ready to serve their own cooked dinner.

Right on the dot of seven o'clock, Mr. Earl Smith, president, tapped for silence, and the Rev. Leslie Hart asked the blessing.

After the meal an interesting picture was shown in the library.

The new officers of the club are besides the president, Mr. Mac Ingo vice president, Mr. Robert Harris secretary, and Mr. Lloyd Richardson treasurer.

They have set up a number of worthwhile projects. These are: sponsor for the Boy Scout Troop number 519, co-sponsor of the Farm Shop, sponsor the Farm Class, and help the Fire Department. In addition, they have two hospital beds, and two wheelchairs which may be used.

Wilda Mrs. Boyd Ford is spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. F. E. McCauley in Fredericksburg, her sister, Mrs. H. M. Marshall, is staying in the home of Mrs. W. M. Black.
